Dean Thomas F. Holgate,
Northwestern University,
Evanston, Ill.

Dear Dean Holgate:

I am sure that Mr. M. W. Rowell is entirely worthy of an honorary degree, if the Northwestern University should undertake to so honor him. Such an action would I know be regarded in Toronto as being thoroughly appropriate and well deserved.

I hope that your work this session is proceeding well, and that you are enjoying your work, and your family are well. With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
